Teck Announces Closing of Fording Transaction

Vancouver, October 30, 2008 – Teck Cominco Limited (TSX: TCK.A and TCK.B, NYSE: TCK) today announced the closing of the previously announced arrangement under which Teck has acquired all of the assets of Fording Canadian Coal Trust. Teck now owns 100% of Elk Valley Coal. Elk Valley Coal Corporation will be renamed Teck Coal Limited.

Under the terms of the arrangement, unitholders of Fording will receive 0.245 of a Teck Class B subordinate voting share and cash in the amount of US$82.00 (less any amounts withheld on account of taxes) for each unit. With the arrangement completed, Fording units have ceased trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange and the New York Stock Exchange.

Unitholders who hold their units through a broker or other financial intermediary will receive the amounts payable to them under the arrangement through the broker or other financial intermediary. Unitholders should contact their broker or other financial intermediary if they have any questions regarding this process.

Unitholders who hold their units in registered form will receive the amounts payable to them under the arrangement following the deposit of their unit certificates with Computershare Investor Services Inc., the depositary for the arrangement in accordance with the instructions contained in the Letter of Transmittal previously sent to them. Any questions regarding payment of the purchase price, including any request for an additional copy of the Letter of Transmittal, should be directed to the depositary via telephone at 1-866-523-3444 (toll free in North America) or via email at corporateactions@computershare.com. Teck expects that the arrangement consideration payable to registered unitholders who have deposited their Letters of Transmittal and unit certificates with the depositary prior to today's date will be available from the depositary on October 31, 2008.

The volume weighted average price of the Teck Class B subordinate voting shares on the NYSE for the ten trading days ended October 28, 2008 was US$11.71. Teck and Fording are using this price for purposes of valuing the arrangement consideration. Fording unitholders may find this information useful for tax purposes.
